Comments Report

5. Open Ended

<sup>5.1)</sup> The instructor (please comment on questions 4.1-4.5 above)

- I really like Melissa. She is passionate about what she does and is helpful to understanding Spanish, and always comes to class with enthusiasm. She really incorporates fun things into class time like music videos, fun activities and games, and I really liked how we got to learn about Spanish slang.
- Melissa is fantastic at teaching. She is kind and understanding yet does not have a problem telling someone if they are doing something wrong. Her teaching style helped me progress in Spanish and learn more about culture than I have in other classes. My writing skills as a whole have improved tremendously as a result of her in depth feedback.
- Melissa is overall an amazing instructor. If it weren't for her, I am not sure if I would have succeeded without her. I came from high school Spanish, and to 3110 that is a big jump. She made herself available to me when she didn't need to to explain the concepts I missed out on through this jump. She is interactive, funny, and incredibly kind. It was motivating and very rewarding to do well in her class.
- Melissa is the most enthusiastic instructor that I have had at Ohio University, which only made the class even more enjoyable. I loved the way that we were able to practice grammar with the questions on the slides, but I wish sometimes for the harder subjects, it was more formal teaching.
- Melissa was great instructor and was highly energetic and motivating every day. She encouraged us to work together and talk with each other during class time.
- Melissa was very good with feedback and trying to help us understand the material. She always offered office hours and reminded us that we can meet with her outside of class.
- She was a fantastic professor that helped me learn really well. She was always super helpful and enthusiastic about teaching! Best Spanish teacher I've had!
- She was passionate about the subject and was always engaging and kind with every student.
- She was very enthusiastic about learning Spanish and it made the class more interesting and made me want to learn.
- The instructor did a great job coming in to class every day with a positive attitude and excited to teach.
- was very helpful and used great methods of teaching. She allowed students to be interactive with the subject and to practice the language.

5.2) The course and the materials (please comment on questions 4.6-4.10 above)

- A majority of my learning and comprehending of this class was through in class activities and group work. I do feel, however, that VHL is a very helpful homework tool and increased my understanding. The only complaint I have is that the homework material is over subjects we have not yet talked about in class. I think that if we were to go over material in class and then complete the VHL homework, the material would be able to better sink in.
- I didn't really enjoy the VHL homework only because I would receive grades that were not so great due to lack of understanding in the directions.
- I do not think Supersite is a good resource. I think the website is a little dated and disorganized and a better homework alternative could be used. The essays were a good homework source and I wish we did more writing activities like those.
- I liked the layout of the course but VHL can be frustrating sometimes with technical difficulties or little things like misspelled words are completely wrong.
- I liked writing the essays and thought they were useful, however the book work wasn't my favorite. I felt like it was unnecessary to become more fluent in the language. Some of the materials in the book weren't useful to my understanding.
- I think that the amount of supersite that we were assigned was slightly unreasonable, and then having essays to do on top of that was time consuming. The writing that we focused on in this class was very useful and worthwhile. I wish we focused a little more on cultural aspects of Spanish.
- The amount of work was reasonable with also a decent level of difficulty
- The only thing that I did not like was the supersite. I felt like I did not learn anything when doing them and it wasted my time. All of the other material was helpful though and helped me become a better writer.
- There was a decent but fair amount of work.
- This course is indeed challenging. It is taught in completely Spanish, and revolves around using critical thinking to complete assignments. The exams were challenging and required me to use skills I was uncomfortable using. The course greatly improved my Spanish because it touched on many concepts I did not learn in high school.
- were very engaging and fun. I learned a great deal of information in this course and would recommend it to a friend.

5.3) Self-Evaluation (please comment on questions 4.11-4.13 above)

- I always attended class and I always completed my homework, however I feel like I could have put more effort towards the class in the quality of my homework and studying for tests.
- I could have given a better effort while doing my homework
- I did not miss a single class, or not miss a draft of any essay. I do think I am more aware & conscious when it comes to my Spanish language.
- I feel more confident about writing in Spanish because of this class.
- I personally think I did better than I thought in the course because I have never had to write essays fully in Spanish this many times throughout a course but it really helped me.
- I put a lot of effort into succeeding in this class. I went to every class, office hours, and did every homework assignment, and I believe it shows. My Spanish has improved greatly, in conversation and composition.
- I started to slack off on the homework toward the end of the semester. However I made a lot of effort to participate fully in every class and engage with my classmates. I feel like I could have achieved an A if I would have worked harder at the homework, which is why I think it would be beneficial to look for more engaging homework activities.
- I think I could have done better in this course, however I am very happy with how much my language skills have grown over the semester. I also feel like I have a better understanding of Spanish-speaking cultures.
- I think I could have done better with completing my homework. I definitely should have sent in more of my compositions in order to receive feedback on my mistakes, but overall I am proud of my coursework and the progress I have made through this class.
- I was not always as prepared and engaged in the class as I should have been, but overall, I worked very hard and am happy with what I got out of the class.
- The only thing I could have done better on was the homework. I didn't turn everything in on time and got a lower score because of it.
