Comments Report

5. Open Ended

<sup>5.1)</sup> The instructor (please comment on questions 4.1-4.7 above)

- Definitely, someone I will miss and hope to have another class with again in the future. Overall an amazing teacher who got along extremely well with everyone.
- Extremely supportive of students, even with the online format she constantly made herself available and accommodated to many students' needs
- Melissa is an example of how all professors should be. She is enthusiastic about class, about the subject, and about the improvement of her students. She makes herself more than available and provides many outside resources for her students if they do not want her help personally. She is so kind and caring and I am so happy she was our teacher during this trying time.
- One of the best Spanish teachers I have ever had. She was always available to help students understand any content they were having trouble with, and she was extremely generous with her time when I needed help with assignments.
- Profesora Figueroa was very helpful outside of the class room when it comes to responding to emails or even scheduling a zoom meeting to go over material you don't quite understand. She makes this class a lot less scary, she is very nice and she cares about her students.
- Professor Figueroa was easily the best Spanish teacher I've ever had, in my 7 years of learning Spanish. She was extremely fair, just, enthusiastic, and you could tell at any given point how much she wanted us all to fairly succeed. The class was not easy, but it surely wasn't impossible with all her help. I will recommend her to everyone who has to take SPAN 3110.
- Wonderful, cared about the subject and that each student cared too. Dilligent in making sure students knew what was expected and going on.
- provided a clear and constructive learning environment that encouraged me to contribute to the course discussion, and keep trying in the class. The lessons and advice the professor provided were essential for learning in the course.

5.2) The course and the materials (please comment on questions 4.8-4.10 above)

- Course material was set to improve writing skills, and I feel my writing improved greatly.
- I was already planning on minoring in Spanish so this class didn't increase my interest in the subject. The tests are fair, but the homework can be a little tricky sometimes. I would 100% recommend this class because Profesora Figueroa is an amazing professor.
- Quality.
- Spanish is hard in general but Melissa really worked with us!
- The course and materials themselves were fine. No complaints.
- The material was challenging, but not impossible, and there was a good variety of content that I feel covered a lot of areas.
- The papers and readings were reasonably difficult, I had little trouble with them. As well, the final exam was easiest exam since I had a certain amount of guidelines and techniques provided to me by the professor. However, the homework assignments were very difficult and I found myself struggling to answer properly since there was no guidance in what I was doing wrong. Most of the time, I gave several attempts in hopes I am getting close to the answer.
- Very well put together and was very flexible with multiple sources of help and guidance.

5.3) Self-Evaluation (please comment on questions 4.11-4.16 above)

- I learned a lot and I think I am ready for the next class.
- I put several hours of reading and reviewing into the course. I wasn't sure if I put enough time towards my exams, since my grades are largely poor in that regard. I have tried much harder and I've attempted to work and teach myself each week. Most of the time, I get close to understanding it, but I was never sure how well I was doing or what I was doing wrong since the homework did not help me in any way. It just demonstrated how I was missing micro-movements within words.
- I really enjoyed this class and I am very glad I had the opportunity to participate. It was a challenge, but I was invested and interested, so I was happy to put in a little extra time.
- I still have a long ways to go but I feel better about my skills now then in the beginning of the year.
- I tried my best and worked hard enough to get an A. I believe I will, as I should.
- My ability to write a paper and hold a conversation improved in this class through the required assignments. I attended class and all exam preparation optional classes.
- This class has made my understanding of the Spanish language better. It is hard learning a language online so you have to work a little harder to make sure you're getting all the information. Being able to talk regularly with the professor and other students in Spanish definitely helped my conversation skills.
- This learning environment is awful, I feel this is my strongest class this semester, but I could have put more effort into everything.
